PUBLICATIONS

Books

A Life of HLA Hart: The Nightmare and the Noble Dream (OUP 2004). (Winner of the RSA’s Swiney Prize 2004 and shortlisted for the James Tait Black Prize for Biography and for the British Academy Book Prize.)

State Punishment: Political Principles and Community Values, Routledge, 1988

Regulating Law edited by Christine Parker, Colin Scott, Nicola Lacey and John Braithwaite (edited collection including introduction co-authored with the other editors and one article) (OUP 2004)

Criminal Justice: A Reader, Oxford University Press 1994 (edited collection: original introduction, pp. 1-36)

Journal articles

‘American Imprisonment in Comparative Perspective’ Daedalus 139 (3) (Summer 2010)

‘Space, time and function: intersecting principles of responsibility across the terrain of criminal justice’ Criminal Law and Philosophy vol 1 (2007) 233-50

‘Are Rights Best Left Unwritten?’, (1989) Political Quarterly p.433-441

Working papers

Contributions to books

Peter Cane and Joanne Conaghan (eds.), The New Oxford Companion to Law, member of the advisory editorial committee and contributor of 3 entries.

‘Missing the Wood.... Pragmatism versus Theory in the Royal Commission’, in Mike McConville and Lee Bridges (ed.), Criminal Justice in Crisis, Edward Elgar, 1994, pp.30-41

‘Responsibility: law, medicine or morals?”, in P. Byrne (ed.), Rights and Wrongs in Medicine, King’s College Studies, 1985-6, Oxford University Press, 1986, pp.139-57

Notes and Reviews

‘Reconceiving Socio-Legal Studies’, Socio-Legal Newsletter, Summer 1994

