Publications:

Books

Edited books

The Economics of Equal Opportunities, with Jill Rubery, Equal Opportunities Commission, 1995.

Dilemmas of Lone Motherhood, with Randy Albelda and Susan Himmelweit, Routledge, 2005.

Edited Collections

The Economics of Equal Opportunities in European Countries, with Irene Bruegel, a special issue of Feminist Economics, Vol. 4, No. 1, January 1998.

Feeding the Masses: Plenty Want and the Distribution of Food and Drink in Historical Perspective, with Steve Hindle, a special issue of the Economic History Review, Vol. 61, No. S1, 2008.

Off the Record: Female Labour Force Participation in the European Past, with Carmen Sarasúa, a Symposium in Feminist Economics, Vol. 18, No. 4, October 2012.

Refereed Articles

Book Chapters

“‘Because they are too menny…” Children, Mothers, and Fertility Decline: The Evidence from Working-Class Autobiographies of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries’, in Gendering the Fertility Decline in the Western World, edited by A.A.P.O. Janssens, Lang, 2007, pp.113-150.

Work in Progress
‘Memories of Industriousness: The Industrial Revolution and the Household Economy in Britain 1700-1878’, ESRC Professorial Fellowship Project.

Cambridge Economic History of Modern Britain, editor with Roderick Floud and Paul Johnson.

‘Busy Burglars: Consumer and Industrious Revolutions as seen through Crime statistics of the 18th and 19th centuries’, with Sara Horrell and Ken Sneath.

Policy Publications

Book reviews and notes

Other publications:

Seminars, Conference Papers and Public Lectures:

Examples from recent years include:

Panellist, with Amartya Sen, Joseph Stiglitz, Nicolas Crafts and Sudhir Anand, British Academy, July 2002.

Participant at a Conference on Gender and the Demographic Transition, Nijmegen, May 2005.

Participant and Core Group Member, COST ACTION A34, Gender and Well-Being, 2006-9, Symposia in Modena, Barcelona, Madrid, and Geneva.

Participant, Session on ‘Industrious women and children of the world? Jan de Vries’ ‘industrious revolution’ as a conceptual tool for researching women’s and children’s work in an international perspective’ at the XVth World Economic History Congress, Utrecht, August 2009.

Participant, Session on ‘Apprenticeship, Human Capital and the Social Order in the Pre-Industrial World’ at the XVth World Economic History Congress, Utrecht, August 2009.

Organiser and Participant, Conference on ‘Reconstructing Female labour Force Participation Rates in Western Europe, 18th and 19th Centuries’, Barcelona, November 2010.

Public Engagement:

Regular radio interviews, (for example, In Our Time, Woman’s Hour, Analysis, Today Programme, etc.).
Presentations to Antiquarian Societies and Local History Societies.
Member Policy Advisory Committee, Institute for Public Policy Research, 2008- present.
Presentation at the Local Population Studies Society Conference, St Albans, April 2009.

Popular Media:
Interest in my recent work has been marked by articles in The Independent, BBC History Magazine and the Daily Mail. I have also been interviewed on Radio Manchester and BBC’s Radio 4’s Analysis and Woman’s Hour.