

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES APPLICANT MONITORING FORM

CONFIDENTIAL

The policy and practice of the University of Oxford require that entry into employment with the University and progression within employment will be determined only by personal merit and the application of criteria which are related to the duties of each particular post. Subject to statutory provisions, no applicant or member of staff will be treated less favourably than another because of their gender, marital or civil partnership status, sexual orientation, religion or belief, racial group, age or disability. In all cases, ability to perform the job will be the primary consideration.

Any information given will be used only to support the diversity and equal opportunities policy and in accordance with the principles of the Data Protection Act 1998. It is not part of the selection process and will not be seen by any member of the selection panel. The information you give will be retained only for statistical purposes and will not be linked to your name.

All Souls College Privacy Policy & Information on how All Souls uses your data can be found on our website.
