

ALL SOULS COLLEGE
Record of Processing Activities in relation to:
Conferences and Events

ID.	Category of personal data	Source of the data	Why we process it	How long we keep this data	Our lawful basis for processing	Details relating to lawful basis (where applicable)	Special category grounds	Special category- details of public interest etc (where appropriate)	Criminal Conviction Grounds	Criminal conviction grounds (further information)
1	Contact details (name, current addresses, telephone contact details), to the extent collected, of event attendees, speakers and conference organisers.	We obtain this data from you. We obtain this data from your host, normally a Fellow. We obtain data from third parties e.g. where someone is organising an event that involves you as a speaker.	In order to communicate with you about College events and conferences you are attending, have expressed an interest in, or may have an interest in.	We retain the contact details of attendees for one year following an event. Details for conference and event organisers are held for 6 years post event. If you have requested addition to our communications lists, in order to be notified of future events and opportunities, we will continue to hold your contact details until you tell us you no longer wish to be contacted or time has passed such that we are no longer certain that you wish to continue to receive messages and we are unable to obtain renewed confirmation from you that you do.	Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you Processing is necessary in order to take steps at your request prior to entering a contract Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms	Where you have an expressed an interest in College events, processing is necessary in order to enable us to enter into relevant contracts with you or take relevant preparatory steps. We also have a legitimate interest in processing your personal contact data for the purposes of informing you of other College events that may be of interest to you, where appropriate and in line with other regulatory and legislative regimes.	N/A		N/A
2	Security records, including CCTV records, access control records, guest vehicle registrations and records of keys issued. Records of security incidents, accident reports and health and safety records.	We generate this data about you	To monitor the attendance of people on College premises, as part of the College's safety and security arrangements.	CCTV records are retained for up to 45 days. Access control and access logs are retained for six months. Security incidents, accident reports and health and safety records are retained for 6 years from creation. If incidents are mentioned during Governing Body meetings, the minutes will be retained in the College archive in perpetuity.	Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms	We, you, and College residents have a legitimate interest in restricting access to College property to authorised persons, monitoring the attendance of people on College premises, and maintaining a record of incidents occurring on College property, as part of the College's safety and security arrangements.	Substantial public interest under the UK Data Protection Act 2018	The College processes special category information in pursuit of our functions and under health and safety legislation, and for the purposes of performing or exercising obligations or rights which are imposed or conferred by law on the College or the data subject in connection with employment, social security or social protection.	The processing is necessary for purposes of the prevention or detection of an unlawful act and must be carried out without the consent of the data subject, so as not to prejudice those purposes.	To the extent that data recorded includes data on criminal offences, convictions and allegations.
3	Records of College events and conferences in which you have expressed an interest, or for which you have registered for and/or attended.	We generate this data about you	To enable the proper management of College events, to ensure that we have an accurate record of attendance at College events and to enable us (where permitted) to inform you of additional events which may be of interest to you. Also, to inform the planning of future events.	We retain details of key College events (Encaenia, Chichele dinners, guest nights) that you have attended permanently. Details of other events or conferences that you organise or attend are retained for 6 years post event.	Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you Processing is necessary in order to take steps at your request prior to entering a contract Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms	To the extent that you attendance is based on a contractual relationship, processing is necessary for the performance of that contract or as part of preparatory steps prior to entering into that contract. For other events, we have a legitimate interest in understanding who will be attending College events for organisational, Health and Safety and similar purposes. The College has a legitimate interest in maintaining a permanent record of its major events, including for historical research purposes.	N/A		N/A
4	Information about your health, dietary requirements and/or disabilities.	We obtain this data from you	When we consider what reasonable adjustments to make, or we need to take account of any dietary requirements you have (whether for medical or belief reasons), when planning for you attendance at events.	Data is collated for use in relation to specific events, and is deleted within 3 months of the event occurring. However, if you have regular dining rights in College, we may save the information on file in order that it can be referenced and appropriate provision made for you at future events.	Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms	Processing is necessary for compliance with equality law, and/or food safety law. We also have a legitimate interest in ensuring that you receive an appropriate service and treatment in your interactions with us.	Substantial public interest under the UK Data Protection Act 2018	Where it processes special category data for these purposes, the College is complying with obligations under the Equality Act 2010 and/or pursuant to health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equal opportunity and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations.	N/A
5	Records generated for legal or statutory compliance purposes that contain names and/or associated personal data. For example, copies of data supplied pursuant to requests made under data protection and/or freedom of information legislation, records made to comply with safeguarding, health and safety or counter-terrorism legislation, in connection with legal advice or claims, or to comply with auditors' requirements.	We generate this data about you	So that we have a record of information supplied, both in the interests of good administration and also to meet legal and regulatory requirements.	This data will be retained for a period of 7 years from the date the record was generated.	Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation		Substantial public interest under the UK Data Protection Act 2018	Where it processes special category data for these purposes, the College is complying with its obligations under legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely the requirement for the College to comply with its statutory and legal obligations.	The processing meets a condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018	Where it processes criminal convictions/allegations data for these purposes, the College is complying with its obligations under legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely the requirement for the College to comply with its statutory and legal obligations.

ALL SOULS COLLEGE
Record of Processing Activities in relation to:
Conferences and Events

ID.	Category of personal data	Source of the data	Why we process it	How long we keep this data	Our lawful basis for processing	Details relating to lawful basis (where applicable)	Special category grounds	Special category- details of public interest etc (where appropriate)	Criminal Conviction Grounds	Criminal conviction grounds (further information)
6	Opinions and comments made by you on College events, as expressed in communications with the College (to the extent recorded).	We obtain this data from you	The views and concerns of attendees at our events help to guide the planning of forthcoming activities.	Comments regarding events may be held until the event has occurred, the issue has been resolved, or has been factored into planning for a future event.	Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms	We have a legitimate interest in obtaining feedback in order to improve future events.	N/A		N/A
7	Financial information including bank/building society account numbers, sort codes, credit/debit card numbers, invoices, receipts, and outstanding payment information.	We obtain this data from you	As part of taking payments (including deposits and balances) for events, providing invoices and pursuing outstanding amounts or, where eligible, reimbursing expenses.	For 7 years from the point of invoice or expense payment. To the extent that any payments due from you remain outstanding, retention of the data may be extended to enable recover proceedings to take place.	Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you. Processing is necessary in order to take steps at your request prior to entering a contract		N/A		N/A
8	Correspondence with you.	We obtain this data from you	To hold an accurate record of our communications with you.	Correspondence will ordinarily be held for its useful life, and the majority will be deleted within 6 years of receipt. However, where the content of communications continues to inform College activity, copies may be kept longer. In addition, correspondence referenced in Governing Body minutes will be added to the College archive in perpetuity.	Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms	We, and you, have a legitimate interests in the College holding a full record of our correspondence with you, which can be referred back to as required.	N/A		N/A
9	Photographs taken during events and conferences.	We generate this data about you	To maintain a record of College events, including entry of materials into the College archive.	Permanently if arranged or commissioned by the College.	Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms	The College has a legitimate interest in maintaining a record of College life.	N/A		N/A
10	Information relating to individuals (Fellows, College staff and their families only) who have, or intend to be, married or baptised in the College chapel, including names, ages, occupations, marriage dates, and wedding preferences and plans.	We obtain this data from you	To make the College Chapel available to current and former Fellows and staff and their families for the purpose of wedding ceremonies and baptisms.	A skeleton record of ceremonies is held by the College (details of main participants, type of event, dates and times). A register of baptisms marriages (which belongs to the Parish Church – St Mary the Virgin) is held permanently.	Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you Processing is necessary in order to take steps at your request prior to entering a contract Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms	We, and you, have a legitimate interest in our recording sufficient data to enable your planned nuptials to proceed. We also have a legitimate interest in recording those details on the College Archive, as part of the record of College life.	N/A		N/A
11	College guest room bookings (overnight guests) and bed and breakfast bookings for Beechwood House, including names, contact details, and disability details.	We obtain this data from you or your host (a Fellow of the College) We generate this data about you	As part of the administration and management of College accommodation.	For 3 years following the booking of a College guest room. For 6 years where an invoice is raised for Beechwood accommodation.	Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you Processing is necessary in order to take steps at your request prior to entering a contract Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms	The College has a legitimate interest in the proper management of College facilities, in maintaining the security of College premises, in understanding the purposes for which facilities have been reserved, and in recording the identities of those booking College facilities.	Substantial public interest under the UK Data Protection Act 2018	Where it processes special category data for these purposes, the College is complying with obligations under the Equality Act 2010 and/or pursuant to health and safety legislation. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning equal opportunity and to make reasonable adjustments, and to comply with its health and safety obligations.	N/A
12	Computer and email information, including guest login, username and password information for College IT systems, IP addresses of devices you connect to College IT systems, details of when you connected or logged in to our network, and records of internet usage.	We generate this data about you	For the proper management of College IT resources.	Records will be destroyed after one year.	Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms	We have a legitimate interest in the proper management of College IT resources.	N/A		N/A

ALL SOULS COLLEGE
Record of Processing Activities in relation to:
Conferences and Events

ID.	Category of personal data	Source of the data	Why we process it	How long we keep this data	Our lawful basis for processing	Details relating to lawful basis (where applicable)	Special category grounds	Special category- details of public interest etc (where appropriate)	Criminal Conviction Grounds	Criminal conviction grounds (further information)
13	Meal bookings.	We generate this data about you	So that we may provide catering services to guests in accordance with relevant entitlements, and invoice correctly for services provided.		Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you		N/A		N/A
14	Meeting room bookings	We generate this data about you	For the proper management of College meeting room accommodation.	Details of other events or conferences that you organise or attend are retained for 6 years post event.	Processing is necessary for performance of our contract with you. Processing is necessary for the purposes of our or someone else's legitimate interests, except where overridden by your data protection rights and freedoms	We have a legitimate interest in the proper management of College resources, including being able to check on previous related bookings.	N/A
15	Records of requests and bookings for conferences and events, including records of any decisions the College makes pursuant to its obligations both under terrorist prevention legislation and to take such steps as are reasonably practical to uphold freedom of speech within the law for Fellows, students and employees of the College or University and for visiting speakers.	We obtain this data from you We generate this data about you Third party	As part of the management of event bookings and to comply with our legal obligations.	Where concerns exist in relation to a proposed event, or one that has occurred, records may be retained for 6 years following the date of the event. Summary details of other proposed or actual events will be held for up to one year or permanently as part of the College records where these have been submitted for Domestic Committee consideration and subsequently reported to the College.	Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation		Substantial public interest under the UK Data Protection Act 2018	Where it processes special category data for these purposes, the College is exercising functions conferred under the the Education (No 2) Act 1986. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning freedom of speech within the law.	The processing meets a condition in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 2018	Where it processes criminal conviction/allegation data for these purposes, the College is exercising functions conferred under the the Education (No 2) Act 1986. The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely that the College must comply with its statutory obligations concerning freedom of speech within the law