

Neill Law Lecturers:

1997

Harry Kenneth Woolf: 'Judicial Review: The Tensions between the Executive & the Judiciary', Chapter 7 in Lord Woolf, The Pursuit of Justice (Christopher Campbell-Holt ed, OUP 2008) 131-148

1999

Lord Hoffmann: Europe and the question of sovereignty

2002

Lord Steyn: 'The Case for a Supreme Court' (2002) 118 Law Quarterly Review 382-396

2004

Lord Bingham: 'The Alabama Claims Arbitration' (2005) 54 International and Comparative Law Quarterly 1-25

2006

Michael Beloff: 'Paying Judges: Why, Who, Whom, How Much?' (2006) 18 Denning Law Journal 1-36

2008

Lord Hope of Craighead: 'From Clova to Godmanchester –Public Rights over Private Land'

2010

Baroness Hale: 'Justice for the Jains: Remedies for Bad Administration'

2012

Sir John Baker: 'The legal history nobody knows'

2013

Lord Hoffmann: 'The separation of powers, shadow and substance'

2014

Lady Justice Arden: 'An English Judge in Europe'

2015

Baroness Helena Kennedy: 'Securing justice in a complex world'

2016

Sir Stephen Sedley: 'Law as History', published as 'The Lion Beneath the Throne: Law as History' (2016) 21 Judicial Review 289-301

2017

Lord Neuberger: 'Twenty years a judge: reflections and refractions'

2018

Lord Justice Sales: 'Legalism in Constitutional Law: Judging in a Democracy' [2018] Public Law 687-707

2019

Professor Catherine Barnard: 'A Red, White and Blue Brexit'

2022

Lord Reed: 'Time Present & Time Past: Legal Development and Legal Tradition in the Common Law'

2023

Lord Burrows: 'Seven Lessons from Inside the UK Supreme Court'

2024

Lady Rose of Colmworth: "'The Sordid Controversies of Litigants"? Why and When Facts Matter'

2025

Professor Dame Hazel Genn: 'Let's not talk about Access to Justice: Unravelling the concept to create meaning in the non-legal world'

2026

Lord Burnett of Maldon: 'Sentence inflation, its causes and consequences for prisons, rehabilitation and public finances'