II. CODE OF PRACTICE

The following provisions constitute the Code of Practice adopted by All Souls College to operate with effect from 1 September 1987 to facilitate the discharge of duty imposed by Section 43(1) of the Education (No.2) Act 1986, in relation to the College.

PART 1 – General Duties

1. General duty to uphold freedom of speech

Members, students, and employees of the College are bound at all times so to conduct themselves as to ensure that freedom of speech within the law is secured for members, students, and employees of the College and visiting speakers.

2. The freedom protected by para.1 of this Code of Practice is confined to the exercise of freedom of speech within the law. Examples of statements which involve a breach of the criminal law are incitement to commit crime, sedition, terrorism and stirring up racial hatred in contravention of statute. Statements may also be unlawful if they are defamatory or constitute contempt of court. The College is also required to have due regard to its Prevent duties under counter-terrorism legislation.

3. General duty not to impede access to, or egress from, places at which the right of freedom of speech is exercised on premises of the College

Subject to such limitations on access as may lawfully be imposed by the competent college authorities, it shall be the duty of every member, student, and employee of the College not impede any person entitled to be present from entering or leaving a place where the right to freedom of speech is being or is to be exercised on premises of the College.

4. Right of peaceful protest

Nothing in this Code of Practice shall be taken to prohibit the legitimate exercise of the right to protest by peaceful means; provided always that nothing is done which contravenes the foregoing general principles of the other requirements of this Code.

PART 2 – Academic Activities

5. All persons concerned with the organization or conduct of an activity which forms part of the College's teaching, study, or research (such as a tutorial, lecture, seminar, class, conference, research work, or examination) shall immediately give notice to the

Domestic Bursar of any facts coming to their notice which indicate that such activity is likely to be delayed or disrupted by improper means.

6. The Domestic Bursar shall be empowered to give such directions and to adopt such measures as seem appropriate to the Domestic Bursar or minimize the delay or disruption of an academic activity, and all persons concerned with the organization or conduct of the academic activity under threat shall co-operate in carrying out the Domestic Bursar directions and in facilitating the measure adopted.
7. In the event that any academic activity is delayed or disrupted by improper means report shall forthwith be made to the Domestic Bursar by the person or persons responsible for the conduct of such activity.

PART 3 – Meetings and assemblies on premises of the College, of clubs, societies, and other organizations

8. Rooms in which meetings are to be held must be booked through the Events Manager's office. Normally, not less than one week's notice must be given.
9. Any member, student, or employee of the College who, whether alone or in collaboration with other persons, makes arrangements for the holding on premises of the College of any meeting or assembly of persons (including any meeting of any club, society or other organization and whether with or without restriction to college membership), and becomes aware of facts indicating that such meeting or assembly is likely to be delayed or disrupted by improper means, shall immediately report such facts to the Domestic Bursar.
10. In relation to any such meeting or assembly which he believes to be threatened, the Domestic Bursar shall be empowered to give such directions and to require the adoption of such measures as seem appropriate to the Domestic Bursar to prevent or minimise the improper delay or disruption, and all persons concerned shall be bound to co-operate in carrying out the Domestic Bursar's directions and in facilitating the measures required to be adopted.

PART 4 – powers of the Domestic Bursar in relation to threatened meetings

11.(1) Directions and measures to be adopted

In relation to any academic activity or any meeting or assembly of persons which the Domestic Bursar believes to be threatened by disruption, the Domestic Bursar may give directions and require measures to be adopted pursuant to paras 6. and 10 of this Code on the following (amongst other) matters:

- (a) the number of persons to be admitted to the premises where the meeting is to be held;

- (b) the issue of tickets of admission;
- (c) the designation of one or more persons as the official organizers of the meeting with direct responsibility to the Domestic Bursar for the arrangements thereof;
- (d) the designation of a person as the chairman of the meeting with responsibility for the proper conduct of such meeting;
- (e) the admission (or non-admission, as the case may be) of members of the University who are not members of the college, or members of the public generally;
- (f) the appointment of stewards to assist with the control of the meeting;
- (g) the employment of security staff to ensure the orderly conduct of the meeting and safe access to and egress from the meeting;
- (h) the carrying of banners, placards and similar objects into the meeting;
- (i) the place where the meeting is to be held.

(2) Meetings where serious disruption is anticipated

The Domestic Bursar may as necessary consult with the Proctors and the local police about forthcoming meetings and activities covered by this Code of Practice. In any case where serious disruption may be anticipated the Domestic Bursar shall have power, having taken into consideration such advice from the police as may be available, to order the cancellation, postponement, or relocation of the meeting.

(3) Expenses incurred in safeguarding academic activities and other meetings

Where expenses are incurred (e.g. in the engagement of stewards or the employment of security staff) to safeguard an academic activity under Part 2 of this Code of Practice the cost thereof shall be borne by the College. In all other cases the cost shall be borne by the person or persons organizing the meeting, save that the Domestic Bursar may (if so advised) make representations to the Governing Body of the College suggesting that the cost shall be born in whole or in part by the College and the Governing Body may decide the matter.

PART 5 – College premises made available for use by outside organizations

12. In any case where the College is proposing to grant permission to an outside organization or group to hold meetings on its premises, the attention of such outside organization or group will be drawn to the contents of this Code of Practice and permission to use the premises may be refused unless the outside organization or group both undertakes to secure that the principles embodied in this Code will be upheld and satisfies the college authorities of its ability to discharge its obligations in regard to upholding freedom of speech.

PART 6 – Miscellaneous

13. The Governing Body of the College is under a duty pursuant to Section 43(3) of the Education (No.2) Act 1986 to keep this Code of Practice up to date. No revision of the Code will, however, take effect until after due notice has been given.
14. Failure to comply with the provisions of this Code of Practice constitutes a breach of the By-laws of the College. Nothing in this Code of Practice affects the normal operation of the criminal law.
