

French Graduate Seminar

Michaelmas 2019

5.15pm-6.30pm, The Hovenden Room, All Souls College

All graduate students are warmly invited to the French Graduate Seminar: no booking required!

Week 3 (Tuesday 29th October)

Sarah Bridge (St Hilda's College)

Thinking Multilingually in Fourteenth-Century England: Nicole Bozon's Contes Moralisés

Allison Adler-Kroll (Merton College)

Travelling through Europe with Simone de Beauvoir: Landscapes and Memories

Week 5 (Tuesday 12th November)

Nicola Pearson (University of Bristol)

Breaking Taboos: Embodying Self and (M)other in Fawzia Zouari's Le Corps de ma mère

Blanche Plaquevent (University of Bristol)

The Sexual Revolution against Orthodox Communism: Radical Sexual Politics and the Cold War in France, 1950-1968

Week 7 (Tuesday 26th November)

Hannah McIntyre (Pembroke College)

Leonora Carrington in French: Language, Madness and Power

Alexander Lawrence (Keble College)

A New Order of Animal: The Transference and Transformation of the Toucan in Early Modern Travel and Nature Writing

Co-convenors: Rachel Hindmarsh (Trinity) and Hannie Lawlor (Wolfson)

With the support of Professor Catriona Seth (All Souls)

www.oxfordfrenchgrad.blogspot.co.uk

For more information, contact rachel.hindmarsh@trinity.ox.ac.uk or hannie.lawlor@wolfson.ox.ac.uk