

Medieval History Seminar

Hilary Term 2018

5pm, Wharton Room, All Souls College

- 15 January
(Week 1) Elizabeth Lambourn (De Montfort University), 'Eating together, eating apart in medieval and early modern India: "Hindu-Muslim" commensal encounters and the problem of "table"wares'.
- 22 January
(Week 2) Benjamin Pohl (Bristol), 'Sometimes less is more... On the vices and virtues of writing medieval biographies'.
- 29 January
(Week 3) Sophie Page (UCL), 'Demons in Heaven: Late Medieval Cosmology and Ritual Magic'.
- 5 February
(Week 4) Katie Fellows (St Peter's College), 'A very Roman affair: conflict and disorder in Rome, 1433-1533'.
- 12 February
(Week 5) Rebecca Springer (Oriental College), 'Being a parishioner in late twelfth-century England'.
- 19 February
(Week 6) Ian Forrest (Oriental), 'Trustworthy men: how inequality and faith made the medieval Church'.
- 26 February
(Week 7) Chris Woolgar, University of Southampton, 'Southampton's people and their goods, 1250-1500'.
- 5 March
(Week 8) Lidia Zanetti Domingues (St Cross), 'Was vendetta legal in Late Medieval Italy?'.

Elizabeth Gemmill

Julia Smith

George Woudhuysen